SET A- Answer Key

The bolded options are the answers

1 Which of these are platform business

a Uber

b Air Bnb

c Amazon

d All of the above

e None of above

2 If "needs" are basic human needs, which of the following statement(s) about "wants" are false

a. Wants are influenced by culture

b Wants are influenced by culture, personality, access to information and life stage

c Wants can be influenced by branding.

d. None of the above

3 The process of selecting one or more segments, from a selection of segments, for targeted marketing programs is an example of segmentation process of

b. FALSE

a. TRUE

4 Consumers are often driven by deep-rooted psychological need states. Here are the six need states, each representing a distinct motivation:
Control – Desire for order, certainty, safety, predictability, and efficiency. Consumers here seek reassurance, reliability, and authority.
Comfort – Desire for ease, relaxation, and indulgence in the familiar. Consumers seek warmth, nurturing, and protection.
Harmony – Desire for balance, togetherness, and belonging. Consumers seek connection, acceptance, and social unity.
Liberation – Desire for freedom, spontaneity, and adventure. Consumers seek playfulness, novelty, and breaking boundaries.
Potency – Desire for strength, achievement, dominance, and impact. Consumers seek recognition, performance, and status.
Indulgence – Desire for pleasure, luxury, and sensory gratification. Consumers seek richness, pampering, and hedonistic experiences.

Meet Sameer, 38 years old.
Works as a schoolteacher in Jaipur, lives with his parents, wife, and two kids in a joint family.

Every evening, he gathers with neighbors for chai and casual chats.
He avoids conflict — if there's a disagreement, he steps in as the peacemaker.
Prefers products and brands that promote togetherness (e.g., board games, community festivals, family-friendly restaurants).
His purchases are rarely about standing out; they are about fitting in with his social group.
He values inclusivity, consensus, and belonging more than individual expression.
Question: Which need state best captures Sameer's consumer mindset?

a Harmony
b Comfort
c Control
d Liberation

5 For those seeking a premium single-origin coffee experience, BluePeak is a specialty coffee brand that delivers barista-crafted intensity through slow-roasted beans sourced directly from high-altitude estates." – In this positioning statement, which is the point of differentiation. –

a Speciality Brand coffee
b Barista -crafted intensity
c Slow roasted beans sourced directly from high altitudes

6 "For urban professionals working 10+ hour days, NeuroFuel delivers sustained mental clarity and jitter-free focus through a patented slow-release caffeine complex clinically tested for 8-hour performance." – In the above positioning statement, which element is missing

a Target Segment
b Point of differentiation
c Reason to believe d Frame of Reference

"Slack is a collaboration hub that brings the right people, information and tools together to get work done. From Fortune 100 companies to corner markets, millions of people around the world use Slack to connect their teams, unify their systems and drive their business forward".

7 Which part of the positioning statement is missing?

a Frame of Reference

b Target Segment

c Reason to believe

d None of the Above

8 Consumers are often driven by deep-rooted psychological need states. Here are the six need states, each representing a distinct motivation:
Control – Desire for order, certainty, safety, predictability, and efficiency. Consumers here seek reassurance, reliability, and authority.
Comfort – Desire for ease, relaxation, and indulgence in the familiar. Consumers seek warmth, nurturing, and protection.
Harmony – Desire for balance, togetherness, and belonging. Consumers seek connection, acceptance, and social unity.
Liberation – Desire for freedom, spontaneity, and adventure. Consumers seek playfulness, novelty, and breaking boundaries.
Potency – Desire for strength, achievement, dominance, and impact. Consumers seek recognition, performance, and status.
Indulgence – Desire for pleasure, luxury, and sensory gratification. Consumers seek richness, pampering, and hedonistic experiences.
Meet Radhika, 32 years old.
Works as a financial analyst in a multinational bank in Mumbai.
Her day is meticulously planned: from her early-morning gym routine, to meal prepping on Sundays, to her strict savings and investment
She prefers well-known brands with a proven track record and reads multiple product reviews before making any purchase.
She avoids experimenting with new restaurants or untested skincare products; instead, she sticks to tried-and-tested names.
For her, unpredictability equals risk. She finds reassurance in warranties, guarantees, and certifications.
In her social circle, she is known as "the planner" — the one who books tickets in advance, carries backup chargers, and never leaves things to

Based on the Pen profile above, which need state does Radhika most strongly fit in a Control

b Comfort

c Potency

d Indulgence

9 Consumers are often driven by deep-rooted psychological need states. Here are the six need states, each representing a distinct motivation:
Control – Desire for order, certainty, safety, predictability, and efficiency. Consumers here seek reassurance, reliability, and authority.
Comfort – Desire for ease, relaxation, and indulgence in the familiar. Consumers seek warmth, nurturing, and protection.
Harmony – Desire for balance, togetherness, and belonging. Consumers seek connection, acceptance, and social unity.
Liberation – Desire for freedom, spontaneity, and adventure. Consumers seek playfulness, novelty, and breaking boundaries.
Potency – Desire for strength, achievement, dominance, and impact. Consumers seek recognition, performance, and status.
Indulgence – Desire for pleasure, luxury, and sensory gratification. Consumers seek richness, pampering, and hedonistic experiences.

Meet Arjun, 45 years old.
A mid-level HR manager in Pune, married with two teenage kids.
Loves routine: family dinners at the dining table, weekend TV marathons, and going to the same hill-station resort every summer.
He prefers home-cooked food to dining out, and swears by the same brand of atta his family has used for decades.
When shopping, he prioritizes familiarity over novelty — he calls himself “brand loyal.”
Friends often describe him as “dependable” and “easygoing.”
He dislikes disruptions; even small changes in his favorite soap or biscuit brand make him uncomfortable.

Based on the Pen profile above, which need state does Arjun most strongly fit inot

a Harmony
b Control
c Comfort
d Indulgence

10 When one segments the consumers, we need to identify demographic and pyschographic varianble. Which of these are examples of demographic variables

a. Income
b. Marital Status
c. City
d. Beliefs
e Attitudes
f Age

g	Gender
h	Behaviors
I	Core Values