II · TRACTION

₹67,149

2	flea markets done — both weekends sold through by the afternoon
1	corporate bulk order in progress
17K	views on the account, 10.3K of them on one reel
143	followers on Instagram, all organic

Every rupee so far came from someone who tasted it first. No paid marketing has run yet.

III · COMPETITION

Where we stand

Three claims. Most people we compete with can make one of them.

01 Real couverture, tempered by hand

Not compound coating. Local home bakers cannot say this.

02 No palm oil, no preservatives

Read the back of a supermarket bar. That is the whole argument.

03 Made after the order comes in

Nothing sits on a shelf. New-age brands making at scale cannot do this.

IV · CUSTOMER

Who we're for

Every Age

10–45 years old

Reads the ingredient list, pays for couverture, will not go back to compound.

Every Taste

Dark & Bitter → Milk → White & Sweet

Every Preference

No Added Sugar & mindful indulgence
→ to rich, indulgent experiences

Every Occasion

Everyday Treats · Sharing · Gifting · Celebrations · Corporate Events

Bulk Orders

Trying to land event companies and corporate events

Flea Markets

Finding stalls with higher foot-fall

Meta ads

Put the marbled slab on video across tier-1 cities.

Direct street sales

Sampling at offices, and markets — the cheapest customer we can buy.

Snap it. Love it. Repeat it.
